General Information

Credentials for the seventy-sixth session of the General Assembly

Seventy-sixth session

In accordance with rule 27 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, credentials for the seventy-sixth session of the General Assembly must be addressed to the Secretary-General and signed by the Head of the State or Government or the Minister for Foreign Affairs. In accordance with rule 25 of the rules of procedure, the delegation may consist of not more than five representatives and five alternate representatives and as many advisers, technical advisers, experts and persons of similar status as may be required by the delegation.

A scanned copy of the credentials, as well as other communications containing the names of representatives to the seventy-sixth session of the General Assembly (such as letters and notes verbales from the permanent missions), should be submitted through the online platform, "e-Credentials", which can be accessed through the e-deleGATE portal (https://edelegate.un.int/).

From Monday, 30 August 2021, the Office of Legal Affairs will commence receiving hard copies of the formal credentials (originals) from Member States, from Monday to Friday, from 09:30 to 12:30.

Member States are requested to bring the formal credentials to the Office of Legal Affairs located on the 36th floor of the Secretariat building.

For enquiries, please email ecredentials@un.org.

Communications from Member States for issuance as documents of the General Assembly

Seventy-sixth session

Delegations requesting issuance of communications addressed to the Secretary-General as documents of the General Assembly should ensure that they are addressed to the Secretary-General and signed by the permanent representative or chargé d'affaires, a.i., of the permanent mission to the United Nations.

The communications should indicate the session of the General Assembly and the number and title of the agenda item under which circulation is requested, using the agenda of current session of the Assembly.

Requests should include the following language "I should be grateful if you would circulate this letter as a document of the General Assembly under agenda item __." The original letter must be delivered to the Executive Office of the Secretary-General (S-3700, Attn: SGCentral), with an original signature or stamp.

A scanned copy of the original signed communications (PDF version) as well as the corresponding Microsoft Word versions should be sent together to the Executive Office of the Secretary-General (sgcentral@un.org), gaab@un.org and dms@un.org, to facilitate processing. If versions in any other United Nations official languages are available, they should be included electronically with a clear indication of the original language and/or which language versions are to be used for reference only.

Materials that are accessible to the public on websites or through the media, such as statements, press releases, social media and images, should be cited rather than included in the communications.

General Assembly

Seventy-sixth session

The agenda of the seventy-sixth regular session of the General Assembly is contained in document A/76/251 and the allocation of agenda items for the session is contained in document A/76/252.

The annotated preliminary list of items to be included in the provisional agenda of the seventy-sixth regular session of the General Assembly is contained in document A/76/100 and the annotated draft agenda of the seventy-sixth session has been issued as document A/76/100/Add.1.

A draft programme of the work of the plenary for the seventy-sixth session is contained in document A/75/965.

The revised information note for delegations on the arrangements for high-level meetings and the general debate of the seventy-sixth session of the General Assembly was issued in document A/INF/76/4/Rev.1.

Second United Nations Global Sustainable Transport Conference (14–16 October 2021, Beijing, China)

The 3-day Conference, convened by the Secretary-General, will consist of an opening and closing ceremony, three plenary meetings, three forums, and six thematic sessions. The opening and closing ceremonies, the plenary meetings and the Ministers' forum are conducted in hybrid format. The Forum on Science, Technology and Innovation for Sustainable Transport and the Forum on the Role of Business in Advancing Sustainable Transport, as well as the six Thematic Sessions will be held virtually.*

The Conference is open to participation by representatives of Member States of the United Nations; representatives of States members of Specialized Agencies; officials of Specialized Agencies and related United Nations organizations; representatives of intergovernmental organizations that have received standing invitations to participate as observers in the sessions and work of the General Assembly; representatives of other intergovernmental organizations; representatives of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations; and representatives or observers from the private sector, civil society, and members of the scientific and technological communities. The meetings of the Conference are also open to representatives of information media accredited by the United Nations.

Inscription in the list of speakers for the plenary meetings is open on a first-come, first-served basis, and will close on Monday, 4 October at 12 noon. A provisional list of speakers that have expressed interest in speaking will be circulated prior to the opening of the Conference.

Member States and Observer States wishing to inscribe in the list of speakers for the plenary sessions should do so via the e-deleGATE platform, which can be accessed by New York-based permanent missions. An automated email acknowledgement will be sent within one hour of receipt of the request. Observers with a standing invitation to participate as Observers in the sessions and work of the General Assembly, wishing to participate in the plenary sessions should do so by contacting the General Assembly Affairs Branch (galindo@un.org and quiogue@un.org).

Submissions should indicate the level of representation and the preferred mode of delivery: In-person, Virtual live or Prerecorded statements. All three modes will be treated equally. The order of statements will follow the customary protocol of the General Assembly.*

To enable maximum participation within the limited time available, statements in the plenary meetings should not exceed three [3] minutes (approximately 300 words) for individual delegations and five [5] minutes (approximately 500 words) for statements on behalf of groups.

*Further details of the Conference and its organization are contained in the Information Note and on the Conference Website. Additional queries can be addressed to the Secretariat of the Second United Nations Global Sustainable Transport Conference at (GSTC2@un.org).
